

Green Eggs & Sand Workshop on Delaware Bay

June 2-4, 2017 — Stone Harbor, NJ

Looking to infuse a globally-significant ecological phenomenon and current real world resource management controversy into your classroom?

Interested in meeting and learning firsthand from a select and diverse group of experts and stakeholders offering a wealth of knowledge and experience with the issues?

Take part in an intensive, full-weekend, not-to-be-missed, field-enriched workshop during the peak horseshoe crab spawning and shorebird-viewing time on the Delaware Bay in May.

Take home the award-winning, recently revised and updated middle school and high school targeted, video and hands-on activities Green Eggs & Sand curriculum.

Where: Wetlands Institute (Stone Harbor, NJ) with Lodging in Cape May, NJ

When: Friday, June 2 (starting around 5:30pm) through Sunday, June 4 (ending at 12pm), 2017

Who to contact: Karen Byrne at (609) 748-4347 or karen.byrne@dep.nj.gov

Fee: $125, covers all meals, lodging (Friday/Saturday) and all workshop materials

More about the workshop: The Green Eggs & Sand workshop commences with dinner Friday evening, June 2 and ends at noon on Sunday, June 4. Interspersed with expert presenters on horseshoe crabs (HSCs), shorebirds, biomedical use of HSCs, and HSC management, are sessions that explore the GE&S curriculum and provide demonstrations of the rich assortment of the hands-on activities it offers. Field trips to Delaware Bay beaches are a special highlight of the weekend: including the opportunity to observe nighttime spawning of HSCs and a day trip to a Bay beach to observe HSC eggs and shorebird feeding.

About the lodging: Lodging will be in cabins with bathrooms at the Ponderosa Campground in Cape May Court House (visit <http://www.ponderosacampground.com/>). Participants will have to share accommodations. Each cabin has its own bathroom, air conditioning, and porch. Cabins have one double bed and one set of bunk beds. Participants are asked to bring their own bed linens, blanket and pillow. For those who seek alternative accommodations, a list of nearby motels/hotels is available. Reservations for such are to be made by individuals at their own expense, with the understanding that this does not reduce the workshop registration fee.

Please indicate your lodging preferences, along with any special dietary or accommodation needs on the registration form. Space is limited and registrations are taken on a first-come-first-serve basis. No-shows or cancellations that do not provide at least 2 weeks prior-to-workshop notice result in a forfeiture of registration fees.

Full attendance at all workshop sessions is required for receipt of the curriculum package.
